3) In his letter no 8765/673 dt 11/12th June 1919 the I.G. of Police had requested that the designations of the Record Keeper and the Camp Clerk, may be interchanged so that the Record keeper who was getting a higher pay (Rs 50/-) might be called the Camp Clerk, and the Camp clerk who was getting Rs 40/- may be called the Record keeper, and G.O no. 2 0065 dt 26th July 1919 sanctioned the proposal of the I.G. of Police.

4) In the present proposal of the I.G to change all the designations of the Ministerial Staff, the designations are not modified as sanctioned in G.O. referred to above.

5) Subd & Ack. 28.7.19 b) The present designation of the officials in the I.G.P's office give an idea of the nature of the duties they are doing. This is a strong recommendation in favour of the continuance of the present designations.

7) The existing division of the office into sections, viz Account Section, Correspondence & General Section, Crime Section &c under the superintendence of the Head Accts. Head clerk & an Inspector respectively, also requires the continuance of the present designation, which show the particular section to which an official belongs.

8) It may also be mentioned that before the reorganisation of 1916, all the officials except the manager & the Head clerk were termed clerks. The change then proposed & sanctioned was apparently with the object referred to.
